CPSA Background

The Association of Civil Service Art Clubs was formed in 1930 to encourage the practice and appreciation of fine and applied crafts. In the year 2000, the Association of Civil Service Art Clubs (ACSAC) joined up with the Civil Service Retirement Fellowship to hold jointly a Millennium Exhibition. This was hugely successful. The upshot was that in 2001, the Civil and Public Service Artists was formed (CSRF continues to exist in its own right) to replace ACSAC. The CPSA is open to all people over the age of 16 years regardless of whether they work or have worked in the public sector or civil service.

"For the first time the CPSA catalogue is being sponsored by the CSIS with whom we hope to have a longlasting partnership. The CSIS will also present the award for "best watercolour"

CSIS work closely with many Public Sector organisations and offer members competitive quotations across a range of insurance products (including high net worth home).

They are a "not for profit" organisation with all surplus income being distributed to Civil and Public Sector charities.

Message from the Chairman

I cordially welcome you to this exhibition of the Civil and Public Service Artists.

We are extremely grateful to Civil Service Insurance Society (CSIS) for their commitment to the Association and the sponsorship of the catalogue".

I have been involved in organizing the exhibition since 1997 and primarily became involved in doing so as I sold my first piece of work at this exhibition in the early 1990s! There are many others who have much longer attachments to this organization than me, and I am delighted we now have a broad church of members from Civil Service Art Clubs and the Civil Service Retirement Fellowship as well as other members who have joined more recently. Welcome to you all.

Art - the concept, its execution and its appreciation - is hugely subjective. I am sure all those reading this would have it no other way. I certainly wouldn't. I am delighted that each year through this exhibition we can mix the traditional with the thought-provoking and the fact that sometimes these are interchangeable with the traditional becoming the thought-provoking.

I am very proud that we continue to attract new members even at times when paradoxically leisure time seems more under threat and that those working in the public sector are more stretched in their working lives. It goes without saying, but it is important to say it, the exhibition would be nothing without its members and the huge amount of effort that many people put into making a success.

Many thanks to you all.

Behind the scenes

I didn't quite realise what I was taking on when Andrew Cooper asked if I would manage this year's exhibition. Andrew has done a sterling job of organising the exhibition for the last 6 years and he can have it back next year. I'm wise to the "I might have to go on holiday" ploy now!

The exhibition would not be possible without a great deal of effort behind the scenes. Many thanks go to Andrew Cooper, Ric Ellam, Gaynor Ithell, Derek Kindrade, Tim Playle, Liz Spiro, Marion Price, the helpers with the hang, take down and the artists.

Thanks also go to our guest musicians Helen Baden and Tim Saunders, Lightwave Design Ltd, the Banqueting House and our sponsor CSIS.
